

2018 WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE—Professional Track SCHOLARSHIP OVERVIEW & DIRECTIONS

PURPOSE: To provide registration scholarships to individuals to further enhance their leadership skills by attending an IWLC sponsored event.

WHO QUALIFIES: A limited number of scholarships are available for non-traditional students, small business owners and employees, non-profit staff, unemployed, minorities, and/or those experiencing financial need or hardship. Individuals are eligible for a one-time Professional or Men's Track Conference Scholarship Award, unless transitioning from the Student Track program to the Professional Track program.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS: Scholarship Awards will be applied to cover the FULL amount for the event Professional Track registration fee. Scholarships will not be awarded as cash and DO NOT include any travel expense.

SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION COMMITTEE: There is a Scholarship Selection Committee, which is made up of a very diverse group of community leaders and IWLC staff members, which review all applications and award all scholarships. All applications are judged anonymously and decisions of the committee shall be final.

DIRECTIONS & HOW TO APPLY: Applicants must submit the official IWLC Scholarship Application Form and required narratives to IWLC by email to: scholarships@IWLCLeads.org.

1. Download the official IWLC Scholarship Application Form in a WORD document.
2. Part One, Two and Three must all be completed in their entirety
3. Save completed application as a WORD.doc document. PDFs will not be accepted.
4. Email completed application to scholarships@IWLCLeads.org
5. When the application arrives at the IWLC office, you will receive an email notification of receipt. This in NO WAY verifies you have accurately completed the application or that you will receive a scholarship, but only that your materials have been received.

DEADLINES & NOTIFICATIONS: Refer to the official IWLC Scholarship Application Form as application deadlines and timeframes vary for each of the IWLC regional events.
